

AUDITION NOTICE

DAPHNE'S DIVE by Quiara Alegria Hudes (Pulitzer Prize winning author of Water by the Spoonful, co-author In the Heights with Lin Manual Miranda.)

Olympia Little Theatre

Production runs June 7- 23, 2019

Synopsis: The play takes place in a Philadelphia neighborhood bar, opening with Daphne and her patrons' conversations interrupted by the appearance of 11 year old Ruby, covered in glass, fleeing the police arrest of her family who were living in an apartment upstairs. Adopted by Daphne and watched over by Daphne's sister, Inez, Inez's husband Acosta, and bar regulars Rey, Pablo and Jen we see her grow and glimpse the changes in all of their lives and relationships in 5 scenes over approx 1 15 period, ending when Ruby takes over the operation of the bar. Each character is strong and well-delineated and the play is beautifully written. Daphne, Inez, Acosta and Pablo have Puerto Rican roots and Jenn is Asian American.

Director's Note: The play is about life and family, both the one(s) you inherit and the one(s) you choose. The language and characters are so well written. I'm looking for actors with the ability and motivation to make them fully live on stage. My crew and I will provide the framework and support and direction to bring an engaging and cohesive play to the audience.

CHARACTERS, in order of appearance: (4F, 3M) Play ages are somewhat negotiable depending on other actors cast, Play takes place over 15 years so actors will age with the use of make-up, costuming and lighting.

Daphne - female 30-50 Latina (Puerto Rican) any race.

Owner of Daphne's Dive. Practical, unsentimental and sometimes sarcastic, Daphne is a woman who has succeeded and made it on her own. She is also the heart of the neighborhood and this unconventional family. Actor must be able to tolerate drinking green juice and at minimum able to pronounce some Spanish.

Inez - female a little older than Daphne Latina (Puerto Rican) any race.

Daphne's more flamboyant older sister who loves her guiros and her family. Ambitious and well-dressed, she often acts as the foil to her more reserved sister, but is fiercely proud of her family and her heritage. Must be able to pronounce Spanish words and phrases.

Acosta - male 30 - 60 Latino (Puerto Rican) any race

Married to Inez. Ambitious and charismatic, Acosta owns a flourishing construction company and is often seen as the "godfather" of the neighborhood with jobs and favors to dispense. He runs for office, first capturing a city council seat and later becoming a state senator, but still holds connections to his background.

Rey male 20-60's any ethnicity and race

Glass cutter, artist and laborer. A free spirit who eschews material possessions except for his motorcycle, spending money as quickly as he makes it. Loves riding his motorcycle, working only as he needs, A regular at Daphne's Dive.

Jenn female 20-50 Asian American

Performance artist, political activist and friend. Passionate, free-spirited, creative, and ultimately self-destructive. Jenn spends her free time thinking up brilliantly colorful and poetic guerilla protests at City Hall and public spaces, but eventually suicides (off stage and away) leaving many of the group bereft and uncomprehending.

Pablo male 25-50 Latino, any race

Visual artist, he makes his paintings from other people's garbage and eventually achieves artistic and financial success. Daphne's love interest, although you wouldn't know if from her!

Ruby - female age 18-30 any ethnicity and race

Will play role from an adolescent girl to a young adult woman. She first appears as a frightened 11-year-old girl covered in glass after jumping through the window of her family's upstairs apartment during a police raid. Adopted by Daphne and raised by Daphne and her "regulars", she grows to be a strong, self-possessed young woman who takes over her mother's bar.
